February 2016 News and Highlights

Help Us Fill "Baskets of Love" for Crossing Guards

Every Valentine's Day, we show our Linden love to crossing guards with baskets of homemade treats and "winter survival" items such as hand cream, Starbucks gift cards, etc.

Contributions will be collected February 6 – 11 and baskets will be hand-delivered on February 12.

Questions? Contact Amy McEvoy at grimmae@gmail.com.

Sweet Sale Supports School

Order hand-dipped, long-stem chocolate-covered strawberries for your Valentine and Chocolate Works will donate 10% of proceeds to the HSA.

Place your order by February 5.

PJs Needed!

The Pajama Program provides new pajamas and books to the nation's children in need.

From February 1 – 5, the school will participate in a "Wear A Pair; Bring A Pair" initiative. Drop off new pajamas in the collection box outside the main office and on Friday, February 5, your child can wear his or her PJs to school.

Get Ready for Author Day

Author Adam Rubin and illustrator Daniel Salmieri visit Linden on March 8. Place an order for a book to be signed by February 8.

Your Vacation Can Help Support our Schools

Planning your family's next trip?

For every vacation booked with the Glen Ridge-based Magical Family Getaways, the travel agency will donate up to $250 to Glen Ridge schools.

Visit Magicfamilygetaways.com to view their specials and services.

Get Squeaky Clean!

Start your Spring cleaning early with rug or upholstery cleaning by Squeaky Clean. The company will donate 10% of proceeds for any job done before March 31 to our schools. Mention Linden when you book at 973-743-1122.

A Seussical Spring Fling

Linden Avenue's biennial Spring Fling, which takes place on Saturday, May 21, celebrates the world of Dr. Seuss. Proceeds will help support renovation of the school's multi-purpose room.

Interested in volunteering at Spring Fling? Contact Tracy Nix (tnix410@gmail.com) or Angie Konetzni (a.konetzni@yahoo.com).

Teachers' Corner

Congrats to P.E. teacher Katie Stapp, who gave birth to a baby girl, Mackenzie Kathryn Stapp, on January 19.
