

Young Learners 1

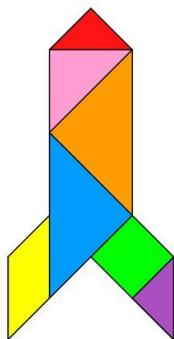

Can liquids flow up?

Students will explore capillary action. This is easy to recreate at home. All you need is paper towels, water, and cups.

Students will be detectives and learn to use deductive reasoning skills to solve mysteries!

Students will do calisthenics for their brains by exploring tangrams.

Great article about tangrams and math.

<http://www.parentingscience.com/tangrams-for-kids.html>

