

Young Learners 2

Students tried their hand at creative writing by adapting Dog Breath into a graphic novel.

Students designed and built structures reflecting their love of nature after learning about architect Zaha Hadid.

Students plotted coordinates to create dinosaur art. This required a great deal of concentration but students rose to the challenge.

