Dear Central School Parents,

The Week of October 1st, 2019 has been designated by the State of New Jersey as the “Week of Respect.” The goal of this week is to continue to instill the value of respect in our students.

Here are a few activities for the Week of Respect:

Wednesday (10/2): Everybody Counts Day – wear a shirt with a number on it.
Thursday (10/3): Mix/Match Day - Celebrating Differences – Wear mismatched socks
Friday (10/4): Pajama Day - Get Cozy with Respect

Our teachers will continue to engage the children in various character-based activities and lessons in classrooms throughout the week.

I ask each of you to help us recognize our Week of Respect and use this opportunity to reinforce good character and anti-bullying themes with our students, whether at home or in clubs, sports or other activities.

Have a respectful week!
